ABSTRACT:

This master's thesis will show the concept of education as the way to freedom in the philosophy of Jan Patočka. It will deal with common phenomenological basis of philosopher to education for freedom and the concept of freedom, and also philosopher's viewpoint to the instrumental education and general link between instrumentality and free human beings. What means "to raise/educate" or "to be raised/educated" and how Jan Patočka thinks in the meaning of educational/raising methods.
